OFFICE OF THE FIRST MEMBER OF COUNCIL
MAR 27 1941
No. 9762

In June 1939, the Registration of Foreigners (Emergency) Act was passed as an emergency measure and certain rules were framed thereunder, called the Registration of Foreigners Rules.

The Emergency Act was replaced by a permanent measure (Act V of 1940) but under section 9 of this Act, the Rules were given a fresh life and are now in force.

Flag W.

The present amendments are to these rules (as amended in December 1939).

Flag G.

Though the Emergency Act provided for previous publication, this condition was omitted when enacting the permanent measure. Previous publication is not therefore now necessary.

A draft notification making the amendments as in British India is put up. Suitable modifications have been made therein.
